

GARY R. HEMINGER
President and Chief Executive Officer

Marathon Petroleum Corporation is a highly focused refining, marketing and transportation company. As an independent company traded on the New York Stock Exchange, we are a top performer in all of our business segments. MPC is strategically positioned in the Midwest and Southeast, which provides a competitive advantage that differentiates us from our peers. Our proven and experienced leadership team is focused on creating value for our shareholders and customers alike.

As we look to our promising future, there is value in reflecting on our successful past. While our company has grown and evolved during the past 124 years, through it all we have held steadfast to our core values: honesty, integrity and corporate citizenship. These values will continue to be the foundation of MPC's business success.

I am proud of the people of Marathon Petroleum Corporation and am excited to share this unique time in our history with the 25,000 employees who stand ready to build on our history and look forward to future opportunities.
