

Kimberly N. Ellison-Taylor

Former Executive Director, Finance Thought Leadership, Oracle Corporation

Director since 2024

Ms. Ellison-Taylor is the former executive director, Finance Thought Leadership, of Oracle Corporation and the chief executive officer of KET Solutions, LLC, which she founded in 2021.

During her 17-year tenure with Oracle, Ms. Ellison-Taylor held senior leadership roles including executive director of Finance Thought Leadership; global strategy leader in the Cloud Business Group; global strategy director in the Financial Services Industry Group; and executive director and global leader of the Health, Human Services and Labor Solutions team. Prior to joining Oracle, she served as the chief information technology officer for Prince George's County government in Maryland and also held roles at KPMG, Motorola and NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center.

Ms. Ellison-Taylor holds a bachelor's degree in information systems management from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County; a Master of Business Administration degree from Loyola University; and a Master of Science degree in information technology management from Carnegie Mellon University. She is a certified public accountant, a certified internal auditor and a certified information systems auditor.

Ms. Ellison-Taylor serves on the boards of directors of Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company and U.S. Bancorp. She is also an adjunct professor teaching emerging technology and innovation for Carnegie Mellon University's Heinz College Executive Education program. She is a past chairman of the American Institute of CPAs and a past chairman of the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants.