

Susan Tomasky

Retired President of AEP Transmission
American Electric Power

Director Since 2018

Ms. Tomasky is retired president, AEP Transmission of American Electric Power.

Ms. Tomasky served as president of AEP Transmission, a business division of American Electric Power, from 2008 until July 2011. Ms. Tomasky previously served in other executive officer positions at American Electric Power Co., including executive vice president and general counsel from 1998 to 2001, executive vice president of Finance and chief financial officer from 2001 to 2006 and executive vice president of Shared Services from 2006 to 2008. Prior to joining AEP, Ms. Tomasky served as a partner at the law firm of Hogan & Hartson (now Hogan Lovells), where she was a member of the firm's energy group, and as general counsel of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Ms. Tomasky received a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from the University of Kentucky and a Juris Doctor in law from The George Washington University Law School.

Ms. Tomasky currently serves on the board of directors of Public Service Enterprise Group Incorporated and is an independent Trustee of the Fidelity Equity and High Income Mutual Funds. She is a member of the boards of Trustees of the Columbus Association for the Performing Arts (CAPA) and Kenyon College. She is also President of the Board of the Royal Shakespeare Company America.