

SUSTAINABILITY DRIVEN

DETROIT REFINERY SUSTAINABILITY HIGHLIGHTS

Located in southwest Detroit, our Detroit refinery plays a vital role in meeting regional energy demands while maintaining a strong commitment to environmental stewardship, community partnership, and operational safety. The facility processes crude oil into transportation fuels and other products that are distributed through pipelines, transport trucks, rail and barges. The refinery's unwavering focus on safe operations, complemented by its commitment to environmental stewardship, has earned recognition from multiple agencies in recent years.
